Dayton High! Oh, Dayton High!
Your Crimson and your Gold.
Dayton High! Oh, Dayton High!
Your honor will always hold.
Friendship true we bring to you
Love and service too.
Dayton High! Oh, Dayton High!
For you we will do or die.

HIGH SCHOOL CORNERSTONE

The first Nesika Wawa was published in 1910 as a quarterly booklet. Later this book was changed to a yearbook and published each year up to 1932. Publications then began in 1935 and continued until 1942. During part of the war it was not published, then in 1945 we had a lithographed type of annual.

Nesika Wawa is an Indian name given to the yearbook since the beginning. The name means Our Talk.

The Nesika Wawa strives to keep a record of all activities each year and to present to the students a book of memories of the past for the future. The annual is the major project of our high school each year.

Senior History

With great plans for the future, the class of '53 entered Dayton High School, under the guidance of Mr. Jenkins.

To welcome the new year in, the class gave an all-high dance at the Recreation Hall. It was decorated with bright crepe paper and balloons. The new year was given a howling welcome at midnight.

The outstanding frosh boys in football were Floyd Bender and Melvin Roy who won their letters. Five boys turned out for basketball. Boxing brought out seven boys, with Melvin Roy leading an undefeated season.

The girls held their own in sports with quite a few girls turning out for each sport.

In our sophomore year we were under the direction of Mr. Metzger. Again this year boys answered the call for every sport.

During the football season, the whole class pitched in and sold hot coffee at all the home games. The coffee was donated by the downtown stores.

To wind up the busy year, an all-high dance was given in the gym March 9th.

As juniors, now upperclassmen, we were advised again by Mr. Metzger. This also was a busy year for the class.

In the fall we sold hot coffee from our new coffee-maker, and doughnuts to the football spectators.

On December 1, we as a class, held the ever popular Junior Prom. With "Bali Hai" as our theme, we decorated accordingly designating our Hawaiian theme.

Having many talented members in the class, we were well represented in sports, chorus, band, clubs, and yell leaders.

"Cheaper by the Dozen," the class play, when presented to the general public was unanimously accepted. Under the wise coaching of Mrs. Greenman, the cast consisted of very enthusiastic members.

With Mr. Lindaas seeing us through our senior year as advisor, we started out by ordering our announcements and having our graduation pictures taken. Miller Studio in Walla Walla took our pictures.

November 26, we presented "Annie Get Your Gun," as our senior play. Under the able direction of Mrs. Greenman, it was unanimously declared a success.

As spring came we began thinking about the ever traditional senior-sneak—with the class deciding upon Coeur 'd Alene, Idaho, as our destination.

On May 28, we graduated with the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" in the background. Although we have looked forward to the day when we would graduate, we now have a different feeling about leaving high school and our friends and entering into a more difficult phase of life.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1953 A.D., of Pietrzycki High School in the city of Dayton, county of Columbia, state of Washington, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, ordain, and declare this our last will and testament.

First, to Mr. Everett Lindass, our class advisor, we leave our sincere thanks for the patience and guidance he has given us.

Second, to the faculty we leave our thanks for every good grade we have so humbly received from them and we also leave them a few grey hairs.

Third, we leave to the juniors the front section of the auditorium and our best wishes for their senior year that it may be as happy and carefree as ours has been.

Fourth, to the freshman and sophomore classes we leave our deepest sympathy for the many trials and tribulations they have yet to encounter.

Fifth, the individual members of this senior class will and bequeath the following:

I, Joye Anderson, do will and bequeath my pull with the law to Karen Spalinger.

I, Floyd Bender, do will and bequeath my athletic ability to John McGee.

I, Sine Bender, do will and bequeath my ability to wear the family pants to Jerald Hall.

I, Diane Boone, do will and bequeath my car-driving skills to Elaine Carson.

I, Virgil "Manny" Bowen, do will and bequeath my bravery to Clarence Bauman.

I, Delmas Brown, do will and bequeath my perfect attendance record to Bill Nelson.

I, Jerry Brown, do will and bequeath my guitar to James Munden.

I, Glen Bundy, do will and bequeath my girl friends to anyone interested enough to consult me.

I, Merle Butler, do will and bequeath my laugh to Edith Breedlove.

I, Roy Dahlstrom, do will and bequeath my height to Douglas Lambert.

I, Orrin Danielson, do will and bequeath my prexy job to anyone willing enough to try for it.

I, Elnora Davis, do will and bequeath my job as student director to Sharon Bacon.

I, David Delp, do will and bequeath my artistic ability to Kay Erbes.

I, Eugene Dudley, do will and bequeath my "A.M. hours" to anyone who thinks that they can keep them under control.

I, Lawrence Dye, do will and bequeath my high-pitched voice to Wayne Peterson.

I, Betty Eaton, do will and bequeath my ability to square-dance to Harry Arneman.

I, Lanada Eaton, do will and bequeath my ability to stay awake during study hall to anyone who gets enough sleep.

I, Shirley Ewing, do will and bequeath my "even temper" to Shirley Power.

I, Alma Fletcher, do will and bequeath my quiet manner to Joan Lyman.

I, Gary Fletcher, do will and bequeath my farming technique to J. V. Rogg.

I, Janis Fletcher, do will and bequeath my extra inches to Leslie Wallace.

I, John Goodrich, do will and bequeath my wild life to Jerry Dunlap (for we know he will make use of it.)

I, Gary Heinrich, do will and bequeath my ability to ford creeks to Keith Lindaas.

I, Wes Lowe, do will and bequeath "my" vocabulary to Preston Johnson.

1, Ed Mackliet, do will and bequeath my affection for the seat near the window to Maralyn Payton.

I, Charles McFarland, do will and bequeath my acting ability to Bill Epperson.

I, Marvin Melton, do will and bequeath my way with women to Lloyd Bender, with the hope that he can use it better than I did.

I, Edwina Neal, do will and bequeath my desire to become a secretary to Joan Thronson.

I, Shannon Newby, do will and bequeath my "magnectic charm" for older girls to no one, as I need it myself.

I, Richard Patrick, do will and bequeath my outstanding football technique to Jerald Hall so he can be as good as Johnny Lujack.

I, Beldon Pearson, do will and bequeath my Stradivarri to Bill Epperson as he may need it for his future business.

I, Rita Rae Rogers, do will and bequeath my ability to swipe other people's "belongings" and get away with it to Mary Ellen Gowing.

I, James Robertson, do will and bequeath my dilapidated "Hot-Rod" to James Munden with the hope that he has better luck with it than I have had.

I, Melvin Roy, do will and bequeath my ability to "duck punches" to Melvin Mings as he may need it.

I, Jack Shaw, do will and bequeath my love for literature to Clyde Hawks with the hope that he gets as much out of it as I have.

I, Darrel Startin, do not will and bequeath my farming ability to anyone as I will probably need it myself.

I, Pat Startin, do will and bequeath my ambition to travel to Ruby Mayo as she'll probably make better use of it than I will.

I, Kenneth Stedman, do will and bequeath my "short-arms" to Bill Stearns "just in case."

I, Howard Stephenson, do will and bequeath my love of the mimeograph machine to Lloyd Wilbur so he can fill my shoes someday.

I, Pat Thurston, do will and bequeath my ability to play hookey to someone who knows how.

I, Lavala Tresenriter, do will and bequeath my "schemes" to anyone who can go through with them.

Senior Class Prophecy

As we stroll down the familiar streets of Dayton in '63, we'll be wondering what our dear old classmates will be doing. Two of the first people we will see are JOYE ANDERSON and BETTY EATON running their legs off in the Brining Memorial Hospital. Also as we go through the hospital corridors we will find SHIRLEY EWING, famous pediatrician. She informs us that SINE BENDER is in the delivery room. FLOYD and SINE lack one of having their own football team.

As we go back downtown we find GLEN BUNDY working in his father's remodeled plumbing shop. A little farther up the street we will find ORRIN DANIELSON, the President of Elk Drug Store, sitting in his office dictating a letter to his newest secretary PAT STARTIN.

If you get a little weary, we can stop at Dorsey's and find LANADA EATON working as waitress to help support her husband and six children. As we again go back downtown we find ELNORA DAVIS working as the assistant of DR. JOHN GOODRICH, who by the way has taken over Dr. Day's office.

On the other side of town we find EUGENE DUDLEY who is now the owner of the Dayton Creamery. We read in the Chronicle Dispatch that MANNY BOWEN is one of the millionaire farmers at Starbuck. As we stroll past Monty's we stop and listen to Ted Prown's (JERRY BROWN) latest recording of "Buckeye Bill in Kalamazoo." As we were listening to records we look up and see MERLE BUTLER flying his new plane out to the pea fields inspecting the new crop.

As we go farther down the street we meet ROY DAHLSTROM coming out of Pool's Implement Store. He's the forman at the A. D. Radebaugh Dude Ranch.. Roy tells us that GARY FLETCHER has inherited the Broughton Estate. EDDIE MACKLIET is employed as the chief mechanic of Dayton. Next door we find CHARLES McFARLAND who is now the new editor of the Chronicle Dispatch. While we're here we decided to read up on some of the latest gossip. It seems that DELMAS BROWN got tired of riding the range so he joined the navy. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. passed away, leaving his secretary DIANE BOONE, his millions. Poor Girl! ALMA FLETCHER wants pupils for her tap dancing classes beginning in September. Mr. and Mrs. Morris, the Former EDDIE NEAL, are the proud parents of a lovely baby girl born August 19, 1963. JANIS FLETCHER, the "Social Butterfly," at Turner is holding a wedding shower in honor of LAVALA TRESENRITER, who just couldn't stand the "drag" all by herself. HOWARD STEPHENSON and SHANNON NEWBY are partners in a grocery store in Anchorage, Alaska. BELDON PEARSON is a centert violinist at Carnegie Hall, and he's to be expected home shortly for a visit.

MELVIN ROY is to be home soon to fight for his light-heavy weight boxing title at the Memorial Stadium at the Dayton High School. He will be accompanied by his most capable manager, KENNETH STEDMAN.

As we continue up the street we find DAVID DELP. He is the body designer for LAWRENCE DYE'S Car Agency.

In the evening we go to the show for a little relaxation, only to see that MARVIN MELTON has taken "Leo's" place at Metro-Goldyn-Mayer's. After the show we go into the Big Dipper and find GARY HEINRICH sitting in the back booth. He tells us that his wife is now working for Woolson and Cahill while he's enjoying life. He tells us that JACK SHAW is the salesman for Shaw's Shoe Shop. He also tells us that JAMES ROBERTSON is running a Used Car Lot, and that DARREL STARTIN is Gary Fletcher's foreman.

As we bring our visit to a close we journey to the never to be forgotten school house where we will find that WESLEY LOWE is the Superintendent and that RITA RAE ROGERS and PAT THURSTON are the old maid school teachers. Rumours have it, though, that they are still trying hard.

Cheaper By The Dozen

By Frank B. Gilbreth, Jr.

and

Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

As Juniors, the class of '53 put on the production of "Cheaper by the Dozen" on March 28. It was received well by a large audience.

Dad, the prominent efficiency expert was played by Floyd Bender; Mother by Joye Anderson; Anne, Ernestine, and Martha, the three older sisters whose date problems cause an uproar, were Eddie Neal, Shirley Ewing, and Rita Rogers. The five brothers, who can't imagine what any male would see in their sisters, were Frank, John Goodrich; Jackie, Glen Bundy; Dan, Wesley Lowe; Bill, Eugene Dudley; Fred, Lawrence Dye. Janis Fletcher was the youngest sister. Mrs. Fitgerald, the Gilbreth's housekeeper was played by Lavala Tresenriter. The two boys in Anne's romantic life were Joe Scales, a college cheerleader by Marvin Melton and Larry by Melvin Roy. Merle Butler acted as Dr. Burton and Anne Sandstrum was Miss Brill, a school teacher. Behind the scenes were Elnora Davis as Student Director, Sine Bender as prompter, and David Delp and Charles McFarland as stage managers.

"Annie Get Your Gun"

Annie, (Betty Eaton) who just never misses—with a gun; her two shy sisters (Lavala Tresenriter and Janis Fletcher) and the little brother that acts as a bird dog (Marvin Melton); handsome Frank Butler (Floyd Bender), who wilts Annie with a glance; the two colorful showmen, Buffalo Bill (Glen Bundy) and Pawnee Bill (Lawrence Dye); Dolly (Shirley Ewing) and Winnie (Phyllis Bond), who help Frank put on his act; young Tommy, (Melvin Roy) who is in love with Winnie; Charlie (Wesley Lowe) the harassed stage manager and Mac (Eugene Dudley) the property man; Mr. Wilson (John Goodrich), who tries to keep the Show people from stealing the soap and towels from his hotel; there's Chief Sitting Bull (Merle Butler), who thinks life on the Reservation will be a little dull after "Show Business," and a cast of many more made up the senior play cast and produced, under the capable direction of Mrs. Greenman, long to be remembered by the capacity audience on that evening of November 26, 1952.

Junior Class Officers

The junior class under the able guidance of Mr. Redfern had a very active year.

The class rings and pins were ordered in September and received in December.

Having many talented members, the class was well represented in all activities. The band and chorus had many juniors in them. There were many juniors on the first strings of all the teams in sports along with those on the "B" teams. Lois Russell and Shirley Bickelhaupt were the yell leaders from the class. As majorettes the class was represented by Pat Coverdale and Sharon Bacon.

FIRST SEMESTER OFFICERS

SECOND SEMESTER OFFICERS

At the football games the class sold candied apples to raise some badly needed money.

On November 21, the class held the every popular Junior Prom, an annual event. The theme was "Dancing in the Dark." It was attended by a large crowd and greatly enjoyed by all.

The class play, "No More Homework," a three act comedy, was well received by the public on March 27th.

Sophomore Officers

The sophomore class started out the year by sponsoring a dance after the Pullman game, September 26. The gym was decorated with Pullman colors and Dayton's colors. Music was supplied by the Rhythm Makers.

The sophomores gave a party for the freshmen on November 10. It was very successful.

At the Christmas assembly we were represented by a band of sophomores.

Twelve classmates were in the band and ten in the choir. The class had eight boys active in football and three in basketball and three in boxing.

Susan Ankeny represented us in the yell leader line and Marillyn Thompson and Diane Sinkbeil were majorettes.

The class had the Cabin Boys, a negro quartet of singers, come before the student body on February 6th.

Freshmen Officers

The class of "56" started their activities by sponsoring a dance after the Orfinio, Dayton football game on October 17th.

A Christmas assembly highlighted by a pantomime called "The Night Before Christmas—Korean Style"—came next in the freshman addenda.

The class won a prize for the best skit in the Christmas assembly.

On February 28th a dance was given by the freshmen to raise money since they had just used all their funds to buy the coffee maker from the seniors.

A return Freshman-Sophomore party was given by the class and was quite successful.

FIRST SEMESTER OFFICERS

The GIRLS' FEDERATION sponsored a Big and Little Sister party on September 16, and in this way they started the year off with a Bang! The main purpose of this party was to help the freshman girls become more acquainted with the girls already in high school.

One of the most highlighted events of the year was the Coronation Ball held on May 1st. With Queen Patsy Thurston reigning over the Ball—it was immensely enjoyed by all. "Stairway to the Stars" as a theme proved to be one of the most original and most cleverly decorated Balls in the history of Dayton High School.

Under the capable guidance of Mrs. Skrove, the club proved itself to be a valuable asset to the high school.

The "D" CLUB had another successful year in which they sponsored many school activities.

The "D" Club started the year by the annual sale of programs at the football games in the fall. In the winter the club sent the basketball team to Pullman to see the Washington State-University of Washington basketball game. The members planned a ping-pong tournament and to present a tumbling and wrestling exhibition to be put on by the Washington State College tumbling and wrestling teams.

There were approximately thirty members this year. In order to gain membership in the "D" Club a boy must participate in at least one sport and earn his Crimson and Gold letter in this sport.

Under the very capable and helpful leadership the club was guided through a very successful year.

With Mr. Evers as advisor, the FFA completed a very active year with members of their Judging Teams participating in both the Portland Livestock Show and Crop Judging contests.

An outstanding event of the year was the Harvest Ball at which Marjorie Stransberry was crowned queen.

The annual Father-Son Banquet was held in April for all the FFA boys and their fathers. The principle of this year's banquet was to acquaint the fathers with the newly constructed Ag. building and all of its modern conveniences.

The DAYTON CHAPTER of FUTURE HOMEMAKERS of AMERICA began the year '52-'53, with Betsy Ankeny as president and Miss Collins as the advisor.

The number of members increased and so did their ambitions. Some of their points of interest were: a potluck dinner, food sales, a box social, and in February we planned and served the WEA dinner. All of these events were lots of fun and successes.

The FHA Convention was April 10 and 11, in Ellensburg, and some of our members attended.

The NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY of Dayton High School had a very successful year under the capable direction of Mr. Clizer, the club's advisor.

This year the Honor Society had a number of activities including the annual selling of pencils, presenting an assembly, and giving an All High Formal Dance which was enjoyed by all those present.

The Honor Society members purchased pins and guards, as is the traditional custom.

A steering committee was picked by the president to give ideas and make plans for the club during the year. They did a very commendable job.

President Floyd Bender presided over the National Honor Society meetings throughout the year. The other officers were Calvin Evans, Vice President; Sharon Bacon, Secretary; and Joe Hopkins, Treasurer. These officers were elected at the beginning of the year and did a very good job.

Plans are now being made for a successful year in 1953-54.

Front row, left to right: S. Ewing, J. Anderson, J. Goodrich, L. Butts, B. Eaton, S. Bacon. Back row: J. Hopkins, B. Pearson, O. Danielson, C. Evans, F. Bender, Mr. Clizer, advisor.

Debate Team

A DEBATE TEAM was revived this year after a number of years of inactivity. Beldon Pearson, John Dudley, Betty Eaton, and Marvin Melton participated in a district meet in Pullman, January 17, with John Dudley and Beldon Pearson winning their decisions.

February 21, we had a practice debate with Pullman High School in which Audrey Deemer, Betsy Ankeny, Beldon Pearson, and John Dudley took part.

At this time the group is planning to go to Pullman March 6, 7, for a debate involving six or seven other high schools—at which a trophy will be given.

It is sincerely hoped that the interest will be revived in such debates in the following years. Under the direction of Mrs. Skrove the team proved wholly successful.

Dramatics Club

The DRAMATICS CLUB has been quite active this year. The officers are: President, Glen Bundy; Vice President, Eugene Dudley; Secretary, Lavella Tresinriter; Treasurer, Marvin Melton. The club bought two flood lights for the stage and make-up and wigs for the plays. They also ordered pins. There were quite a few active members in the club.

On April 24, the Dramatics Club put on four one-act plays to raise money for the club. The plays were a wonderful success.

Clef and Lyre

The CLEF and LYRE club took up operations in the fall of 1952 by reviving the constitution. Many new members were considered for membership and the club decided to initiate its new members for the first time in three years. Music ability is the deciding factor by which new members are judged for membership.

Startin, J. Startin, Drum Majorette Rosalie Reinland, Captain Pat Coverdale, D. Neal, M. Thompson.

The DAYTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND under the direction of Melvin Kornmeyer started the year by playing at the football games and putting on the half-time performances. They performed at the Christmas and Spring Concerts. They participated in the three massed band concerts at Pomeroy, Waitsburg, and Dayton. A lot of fun was had at these concerts.

The band marched at the Lilac Festival Parade in Spokane and also the Days of Real Sports Parade in Waitsburg.

Two pep bands were formed to play for the basketball games both at home and away.

The band is composed of 40 pieces.

CAKE SALE

[illegible]Girls Fed. meeting was held October 14. The girls voted on Sadie Hawkins Day, but no one wanted it so it was dropped.

The girls voted on having a Sports Dance by picking a king and queen for sports. It was voted in but the "D" Club is having a Football Dance so the Girls Fed. just dropped the Sports Dance.

The Girls Fed. brought up about having another Silver Tea to raise money but the bell rang and they didn't get to vote on it.

OUR FIGHT SONG

Now when that Dayton High team falls in line
We're going to boost that score another time
For that old high school that we love so well
We're going to fight and yell and yell and yell
And then we'll fight, fight, fight for every score
We're going to break that line and win some more
For we're behind you boys to victory
Fight, team fight!

"B" Squad

The Dayton Bulldogs had a very good season this year winning eight games and losing only one. The only setback of the season was by the Pasco team, a highly rated "A" school.

This year there were twenty-one lettermen on the squad with ten graduating seniors. The seniors will be missed greatly next year. They are Co-Captains Floyd Bender and Melvin Roy, Merle Butler, Wes Lowe, Eugene Dudley, Jerry Brown, Richard Patrick, Gary Fletcher, Manny Bowen and Jack Shaw.

This year's Inspirational Award was awarded to Eugene Dudley, a lineman. Four year pins were awarded to Melvin Roy and Floyd Bender.

Dayton won the Southeastern Washington Conference Trophy for the second year in a row, needing only one more win to keep permanent possession of the Trophy for Dayton.

Dayton was rated throughout the season in the top five of the Associated Press Poll for two seasons in a row.

Those who were chosen on the Southeastern Washington Conference All-Star Team were: Merle Butler, tackle; Gene Dudley, guard; and Jerry Brown, tackle. The only player for the second team was Loyd Bender, end. The boys who made the All-Star Team two years in a row were Merle Butler, Melvin Roy and Floyd Bender.

Next year's Co-Captains were named at the Annual Football Banquet and they are Jerry Dunlap, quarterback, and Jim Russell, halfback.

BASKETBALL

This year's Dayton High School basketball squad had a successful season under the direction of Coach Bill Heath. The Bulldogs won ten games and lost seven games during the regular season.

Many injuries and illnesses hindered the Bulldogs throughout the season. Old man flu, ankle sprains, concussion, and appendectomys (Andy and Merle), were the main hindrances against the squad.

The Bulldogs went to Sub-District but lost their first two games to Kahlotus and Pomeroy by scores of 59-48 and 48-39 respectively.

The members of the tournament team this year were Merle Butler, Jerry Dunlap, John Goodrich, Wesley Lowe, Bob Crossler, Calvin Evans, Clyde Hawks, Andy Rienland, Joe Hopkins, and Floyd Bender. Merle Butler was elected tournament Captain.

Floyd Bender led the individuai scoring with an average of 16.4 points per game. Merle Butler followed him with an average of 14 points per game. Calvin Evans, a junior, had the best free throw average for the season.

Offensively throughout the season Dayton scored 938 points to their opponents 1090.

The lettermen this year were Merle Butler, Wesley Lowe, John Goodrich, all seniors, and Calvin Evans and Bob Crossler, Juniors.

This year a freshman squad was started, under the direction of Cal Conley. They played quite a few games at home and away and it is hoped that the experience gained will produce a champion team of the future.
